DCPS school boundaries

Every home address in Washington, DC has an assigned DCPS elementary, middle, and high school.

All students eligible for grades K-12 have a guaranteed right to enroll in their in-boundary (boundary) school.

DCPS feeder patterns

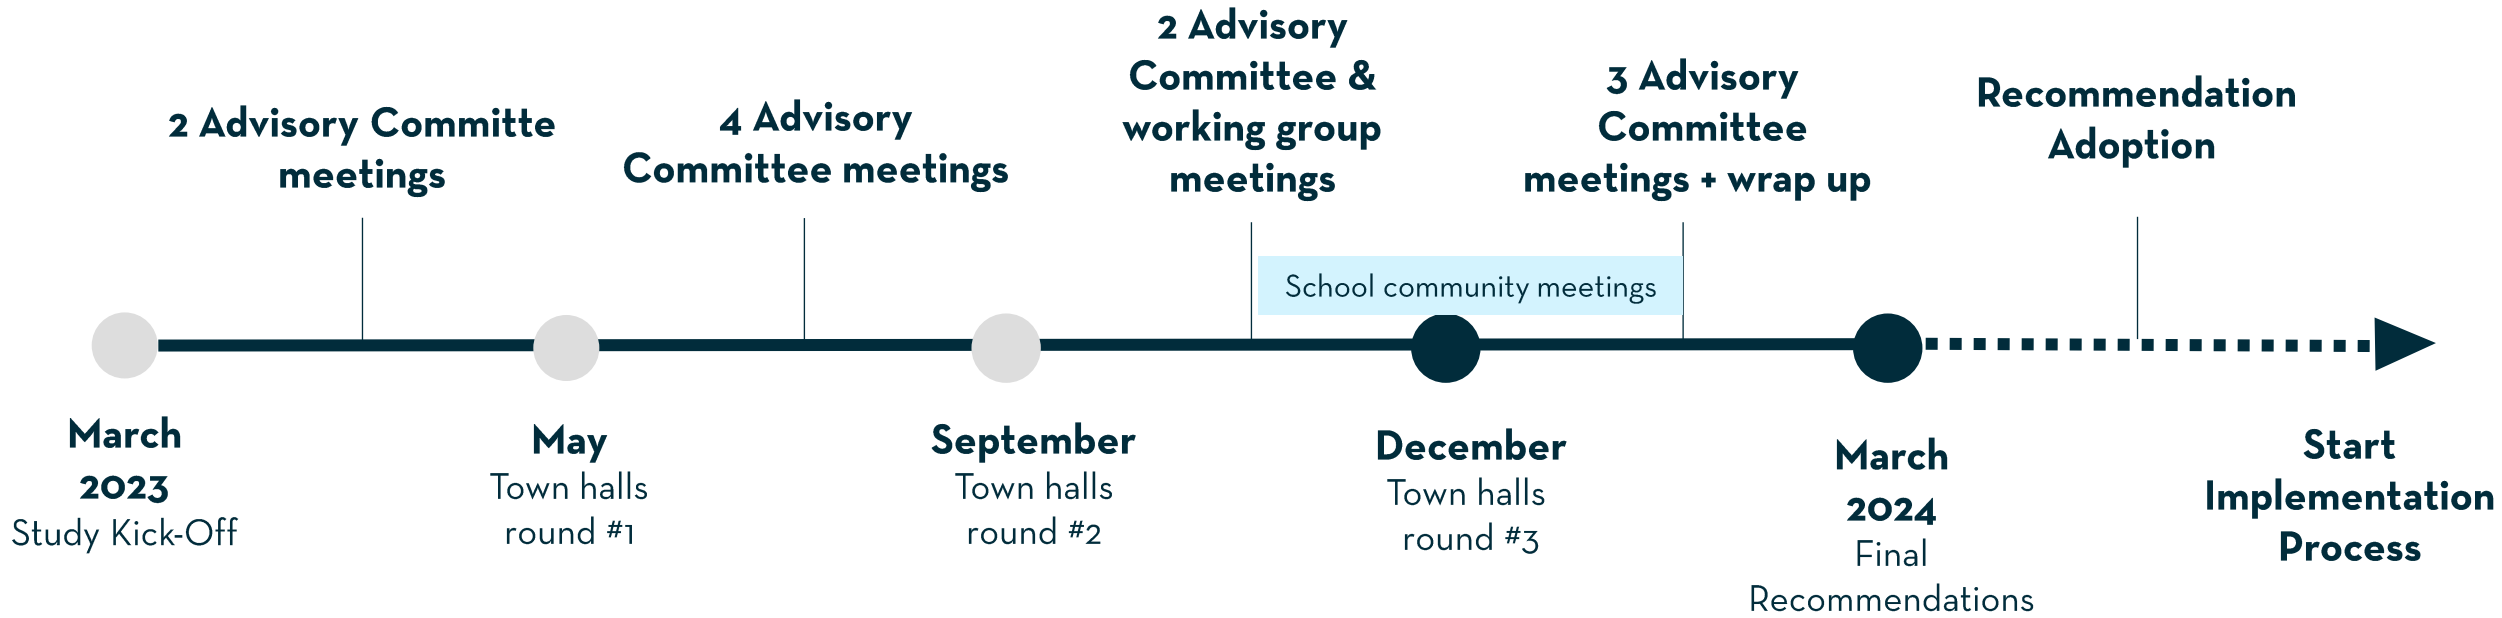

A feeder pattern school is one that a student has a right to attend based on their current school.

This right only happens during the year a student is moving from the terminal (last) grade of their current school.

DCPS has geographic feeder patterns grouped by school boundary and proximity and programmatic feeder patterns based on enrollment in specialized programs (e.g., dual language)

Roadmap

Tubman current feeder rights to 6th grade
