

2023 Boundary and Student Assignment Study Supplement

Utilization of public schools in Washington, DC

Utilization among DCPS by right schools by feeder pattern

SY22-23 Utilization, Total Capacity

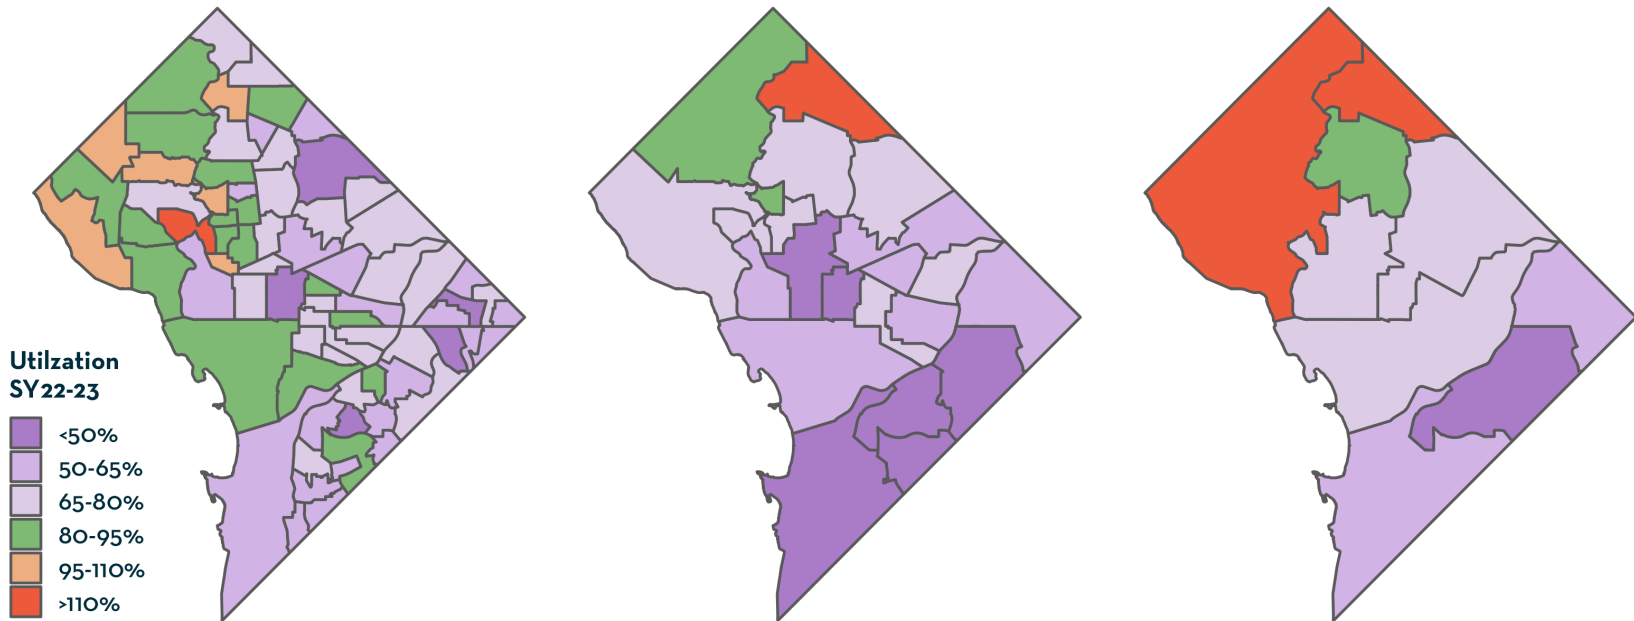

Note:
 Utilization reflects planned CIP programmatic capacity for schools currently being modernized.
 MacArthur HS is not included because it opened in SY23-24.

Utilization among DCPS by right schools by attendance zone

Elementary Schools

Middle Schools

High Schools

Note:

Utilization reflects planned CIP programmatic capacity for schools currently being modernized.

K-8 schools with a single campus are shown on both the ES and MS maps, for Oyster-Adams the utilization for the Oyster campus is shown on ES maps

MacArthur HS is not included because it opened in SY23-24.

Additional resources

- EdScape Chapter 3 – Public School Facilities:
 - Chapter 3 describes the public school facilities located in Washington, DC. It includes information about the number and location of school buildings, the amount of students they can enroll (programmatic capacity), and how full (utilized) the facilities are.
 - View information about school capacity and utilization here: <https://edscape.dc.gov/page/facilities-index>
- 2023 Master Facilities Plan (MFP)
 - The 2023 MFP provides a strategic vision for the enhancement and optimization of educational infrastructure in the District addressing current challenges and promoting long term sustainability. The recommendations are intended to guide decision-making and investments to ensure a holistic approach to facility planning and management for the next 5 to 10 years.
 - View the 2023 Master Facilities Plan and supporting information here: <https://dme.dc.gov/mfp2023>